Teen Wellness Task Force Will Present ‘Real Talk’ May 9

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Teen Wellness Task Force will present the 5th annual Real Talk event May 9 at 6 p.m. at Seventy-First High School, 6764 Raeford Rd. The event is free and open to the public.

Parents and students are invited to attend Real Talk to join discussions and learn strategies to help prevent unintended pregnancy among teens. The program will cover teen health issues to include prescription drug use, asthma, diabetes and more. Real Talk will provide entertainment and information for teens and their parents. There will be refreshments and an opportunity for students to win door prizes.

For more information and to register, go to www.realtalkNC.com.

The Health Department is the lead agency for the Teen Wellness Task Force, which includes Cumberland County Schools, Cape Fear Valley Medical Center and other community partners. The goal of the Teen Wellness Task Force is to combat teen pregnancy and encourage good health for teens.
