Cumberland County Cooperative Extension will be conducting a Beginning Beekeeping Course starting Monday, September 18, 2017 at 6:00 PM. The course will cover the basic information necessary to get started into beekeeping and will prepare students for the practical beekeeping course that will be taught in the spring of 2018. The course will be held every Monday evening for 6 weeks and will take place at the Cumberland County Cooperative Extension Office, located at 301 East Mountain Drive, Fayetteville, NC. For more information and to preregister for the course, call Kenny Bailey at 910-321-6871 or via email at kenneth_bailey@ncsu.edu.

For accommodations for persons with disabilities, contact Kenny Bailey at 910.321.6871, no later than five business days before the event.

ABOUT N.C. COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

North Carolina Cooperative Extension is a strategic partnership of NC State Extension, The Cooperative Extension Program at N.C. A&T State University, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's National Institute of Food and Agriculture (USDA-NIFA), and local government partners statewide. Extension delivers research-based education and technology from NC State and N.C. A&T that enriches the lives, land and economy of North Carolinians. Extension professionals in all 100 counties and the Eastern Band of Cherokee provide educational programs specializing in agriculture, youth, communities, health and the environment.
