Cooperative Extension 4-H Summer Adventures Activities

Cumberland County Cooperative Extension 4-H Youth Development program is holding Summer Adventure summer program for ages 5 – 19 in June, July and August. Participants must have a current 4-H membership enrollment packet completed and on file.

Below are just a few of the upcoming events in June:

Livestock Summer Fun, June 26-27, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Youth ages nine and up will go on farm tours and engage in hands-on activities. Youth will learn showmanship, judging, breeds, animal identification and more. Lunch provided. The cost is $30 and registration deadline is June 19.

Robotics will be June 28-29 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Youth ages nine and up will use Legos to create robots and adjust them using the Engineer Design Process. Snacks provided. The cost is $30 and the registration deadline is June 21.

Bread in a Bag will be offered June 29 from 9 to 11 a.m. for children ages 5 through 8. Participants will learn the importance of measuring carefully when it comes to baking and each child will turn their dough into a loaf of bread to take home. The cost is $10 and registration is deadline is June 22.

A complete listing of the 2017 4-H Summer Adventure program can be viewed on the Cooperative Extension website at cumberland.ces.ncsu.edu. You may also contact Jeanie Edwards at 910-321-6864 or email jeanie_edwards@ncsu.edu for additional information.
