

NEWS RELEASE

Sept. 29, 2017

Kenny Bailey, 910-321-6871 or kenneth_bailey@ncsu.edu

Cooperative Extension Master Gardener Fall Plant Sale Oct. 7

Fayetteville – The Cumberland County Cooperative Extension Master Gardener annual Fall Plant Sale will be Saturday, Oct. 7 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The plant sale will be held on the front lawn of the Cooperative Extension office, 301 East Mountain Drive.

Selections will include plants grown locally by the Extension Master Gardener Volunteers, plants to attract birds, bees, and butterflies, drought tolerant plants, and plants to please any gardener. Extension Master Gardeners will be on hand to answer gardening questions.

Cash, checks, and major credit or bank cards will be accepted.

Proceeds from the plant sale are used to support the following horticulture scholarships, Cape Fear Botanical Garden, Extension Master Gardener Demonstration Garden, Master Gardener educational programs, Wounded Warrior Tranquility Garden at Womack Army Medical Center and the Second Harvest Food Bank Garden.

For accommodations for persons with disabilities, contact Kenny Bailey at (910) 321-6871, no later than five business days before the event.

ABOUT N.C. COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

North Carolina Cooperative Extension is a strategic partnership of NC State Extension, The Cooperative Extension Program at N.C. A&T State University, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's National Institute of Food and Agriculture (USDA-NIFA), and local government partners statewide. Extension delivers research-based education and technology from NC State and N.C. A&T that enriches the lives, land and economy of North Carolinians. Extension professionals in all 100 counties and the Eastern Band of Cherokee provide educational programs specializing in agriculture, youth, communities, health and the environment.

